Florence, November 1, N. S.

BY Letters from Rome and Naples we learn, that all the Neapolitan Troops, that embarked at Nice and Villa Franca, were arrived in the Ports of that Kingdom. Orders have been issued at Naples to fit out with all Expedition two Ships of War, which have been laid up for some Time past. From Mantua we are informed, that 800 Recruits were arrived there from the Tirole; and were to be followed by 4300 Croatsians from Bolzano, and that more Troops, to the Number of 7000 Men, were actually in March to join the Army in the State of Genoa. On the 25th the Regiment of Perlichingen Cavalry arrived at Parma, and was to be followed the 27th by two others, to reinforce the Austrian Army for the designed Expedition against the French Dominions in Provence. By the freshest Accounts from Genoa we hear, that Don Philip arrived on the 18th of October at Antibes, in his Way to Spain.

Nice, November 4, N. S. The first Column of the Imperial Troops, under the Command of Marquis Novati, a Lieutenant General, and composed of three Battalions of Giulay's, and two of Wallis's, arrived here on Monday and Tuesday last; and this Morning Mercy's Regiment likewise have joined our Camp on this Side the Var. On Tuesday last, tho' we had but two Pieces of Cannon mounted against the Castle of Montalban, Count La Trinite (who is appointed to command the two Sieges of the Castles of Montalban and Villa Franca) began to fire against the Place about Ten in the Morning, and with so much Success, that he soon dismounted the like Number of Guns, which the Enemy had pointed against his Trenches, and every Shot made such an Impression upon the Walls, that the Spanish Officer, who commanded in the Castle, offered to capitulate about Four in the Afternoon; and before it was dark, gave it up with his Garrison, (consisting of 60 Men and five Officers) Prisoners of War. The same Night our Works were continued towards Villa Franca, and are so far advanced, that Yesterday Morning we had two Mortars ready to fire on the Place, and this Day shall have a Battery of six Pieces of Cannon mounted. It is hoped the Garrison will not be able to hold out above three or four Days. It is expected that the whole Body of the Imperial Infantry will be here about the 14th or 16th Instant, at farthest, and that their Cavalry will be in the Neighbourhood of Coni, a very few Days after. General Brown is expected here very shortly, and it is hoped our Infantry may pass the Var about the 20th Instant.

Berlin, Nov. 12. His Prussian Majesty arrived here on Wednesday last. In the Evening there was a French Play at Court, and the Birth Day of Princess Amelia was celebrated in the King's Apartments. The next Day his Majesty dined at the Queen Mother's, and afterwards went back to Potsdam, accompanied by Prince Henry and Ferdinand, the Duke of Holstein Beck, and Prince George of Holstein Gottorp. His Majesty is not expected to return hither till the 29th of this Month.

Berlin, Nov. 15. A French Courier arrived here on the 13th Instant in the Morning, to M. Valori the French Minister, from Warsaw, and brought News, that on the 6th the Marquis des Illarts, the French Minister there, had demanded the Princess Maria Josepha of Poland in Marriage for the Dauphin. The same Day Baron Mardefelt, the late Minister from this Court to Russia, arrived here from thence, and went directly to his Majesty at Potsdam.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15. M. Pufhkin, the Russian Minister, has receiv'd his Credentials. The Marquis del Puerto, and his Son, are arrived here from Stockholm; the former goes on to the Hague, and the latter is to remain as Minister of the King of Spain at this Court.

Hague, Nov. 18, N. S. We received Yesterday the News from Leeuwarden of her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange's having been safely delivered there of a Princess on Tuesday Morning last.

Hague, Nov. 22, N. S. The Pensionary of Holland, with the Earl of Sandwich, returned hither Yesterday in the Evening from Breda. The Meeting of the States of Holland, which was at first fix'd for To-morrow, has been adjourn'd to that Day Sen'night.

Dublin, October 30.

This being his Majesty's Birth-day, the great Guns were fired at the Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment their Excellencies the Lords Justices upon this Occasion, before whom a Song was performed: In the

the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

The following Paper signed by Admiral Mayne, Admiral Byng, and the several Commanders whose Names are subscribed thereto, hath been sent by them to the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knight, Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of Common Pleas.

AS nothing is more becoming a Gentleman, than to acknowledge himself to be in the Wrong, as soon as he is sensible that he is so, and to be ready to make Satisfaction to any Person he has injured; We therefore, whose Names are underwritten, being thoroughly convinced, That we were entirely mistaken in the Opinion we had conceived of the Lord Chief Justice Willes, think ourselves obliged in Honour as well as Justice, to make him Satisfaction, as far as it is in our Power. And as the Injury we did him was of a publick Nature, we do in this publick Manner declare, that we are now satisfied the Reflections cast upon him in our Resolutions of the 16th and 21st of May last, were unjust, unwarrantable, and without any Foundation whatsoever, and we do ask Pardon of his Lordship and the Court of Common Pleas for the Indignity offered both to him and the Court.

Admiralty-Office, November 15.

Captain Boscawen, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Namur, being on a Cruize with a Squadron of his Majesty's Ships, on the 26th of last Month took the Intrepide, a Privateer of St. Malo, of 20 Guns Six-pounders, and 200 Men, which had been at Sea eight Days, and taken nothing. He also took a Snow returning to France with some Dispatches from the French Squadron at Acadia, late under the Command of the Duke d'Anville, but the Publick Letters were thrown over-board. By several Letters from the said Squadron to particular Persons in France, it appears, that Duke D'Anville died of an Apoplexy at Chiboctou, a Port of Acadia, the Day the Squadron arrived there, which was the 16th of September, O. S.

and that M. d'Estournelle, who succeeded in the Command, had made away with himself, in a Delirium of a Fever, and that the Command fell to M. Jonquiere, Chef d'Escadre. All the said Letters agree, that the Fleet was very sickly, near 4000 Men being sick on Shore in Huts and Tents, of whom many were dead, and dying every Day: Four Ships of the Line, a Frigate, and a Fireship, besides several Transports with Soldiers and Provisions, lost Company of the above Fleet in their Passage out: And the Parfait, of 60 Guns, was likewise condemned at Chiboctou, her old Rigging and Stores being on board the abovesaid Prize.

Whitehall, November 7, 1746.

Whereas on Saturday the 25th of October, about Seven o'Clock at Night, a Fire broke out at a Farm belonging to Edward Clark, Esq; at Milton, in the County of Wilts, which entirely consumed a Barn, Stables, with all the Horses, and several Ricks of Wheat, Oats, and Barley: And whereas a Fire broke out at the same Place on the Thursday Morning following, which entirely consumed another Barn, Stables, and Appurtenances, together with several Ricks of Corn, and all the remaining Stock of the said Farm: And whereas there is great Reason to believe that the said House, &c. were maliciously set on Fire; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; as also a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Admiralty-Office, November 14. 1746.

Whereas upon a Representation made by Rear-Admiral Byng in December last, (who was then Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels employed on the Coasts of North-Britain) to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that his Majesty's Ship the Gloucester, going into Leith Road, struck upon a sunken Rock little known, that lies in the fair Way going in, which has Sixteen Feet Water upon it at low Water, the said Rear Admiral was ordered to cause a Buoy to be fixed on the said Rock; their Lordships do hereby give Notice, that a Buoy is accordingly fixed on that Rock, which is called the Gunnet Rock; that the said Buoy lies two Miles to the Westward of the Island of Inchkeith in the Frith of Forth, in the fair Way as Vessels go into Leith Road, and on the West End of the Rock in three Fathom Water at low Tide. All Vessels, going into the said Road, are to keep to the Westward of the Buoy, the Rock being about 180 Fathom long from the S. E. to the N. W. and 30 feet broad. At Spring Tides there are only Nine Feet Water on some Parts thereof.
